Europe before the war

- In the early 1900s, many European countries such as Britain, France, Spain and Italy colonised countries in Africa and Asia and were considered very powerful.
- Germany did not colonise other countries and they were not as powerful. They wanted greater power, so they began building large warships and creating a strong army.
- The Triple Alliance was formed in 1882. The Triple Entente was formed in 1907. Because of the different power struggles and alliances, there was tension amongst some countries across Europe.

The Battle of the Somme

- 1st July – 18th Nov 1916.
- It took place in France.
- One of the most devastating events of the First World War.
- Over one million soldiers died.
- 19 000 British soldiers were killed on the first day of battle.

The Western Front

The Western Front, a stretch of land through France and Belgium from the Swiss border to the North Sea. Whichever side won there – either the Central Powers or the Entente – would claim victory!
