Gospel Reflection for the Sixth Sunday of Ordinary time

The Heart of the Matter

How often do we hear solicitors wrangling over the law, looking for a loophole to suit their own agenda? Those seeking loopholes seem perfectly happy to ignore the spirit of the law in their quest to win.

In today's gospel reading Jesus invites us to consider that it is not just laws in themselves that are important but our attitude towards those laws. Perhaps we haven't committed murder, but have we harboured hatred? We might not have committed adultery, but have we failed to live up to the love we once promised our spouse? We might not have committed theft, but are our hearts set on the wealth our neighbours have earned? Laws might seem to fence our lives with rods of uncompromising iron, but most laws are simply expressions of how we should behave towards each other. The unwritten laws of love bind us in promises that we wouldn't dream of compromising let alone riddling with loopholes. When it comes to those we love, we don't need a statute book, our hearts tell us what to do. The written law should be no different. Laws are written down in books of statute and commandments are written in the Bible, but the spirit of the law must exist in our hearts.

What exists in our hearts is as important if not more important than our actions because it's what written in our hearts that defines us.

Turkey-Syria Earthquake Appeal

Two earthquakes struck south-eastern Turkey early on Monday, devastating wide areas in the country and in neighbouring Syria. The quake toppled hundreds of buildings and killed thousands of people. The death toll has already exceeded 11,000, and the figure is expected to grow significantly.

Pope Francis has appealed for help for quake victims of Turkey and Syria during his General Audience in the Vatican on Wednesday morning.

Consider donating online. Every donation however small will count. You can donate at CAFOD, Trocaire, Sciaf, and Christian Aid. Don't forget to add a gift aid declaration if you are a UK taxpayer.

World Marriage Day 2023

12th February

World Marriage Day is celebrated on the second Sunday of February. Set the day aside to re-affirm the qualities we first saw in each other and to recognise the qualities we've developed since.

Fairtrade Valentine's Day

14th February

Celebrate this Valentine's Day with Fairtrade chocolates, flowers and wine.

Cost of Living Crisis

No it hasn't gone away, though we're talking about it a little less.

To do:-

- Have a half term wardrobe clear-out and donate to charity. Polish up old shoes and donate those too. Children particularly quickly grow out of shoes and football boots that can be still considered 'new'.
- Donate text books to the next year group at school.

Care for Our Common Home

Keep Healthy February

This month consider how caring for our common home is also about caring for our health. Invest in a good vegetarian cookbook. Abstaining from meat will eventually help the planet if we all abstain. Eating vegetarian meals involves a bit of a mind-shift, especially if you are a 'pie and mash' kind of person, but it's worth the effort.

RENEWAL OF MARRIAGE VOWS MASS

with

BISHOP TOM NEYLON

14th February 2023

A wedding vow renewal ceremony is a wonderfully romantic way to reaffirm your love for one another in the eyes of God and in front of family and friends. Simply put, it's a special way to celebrate your marriage. It can also be a great way to mark a milestone such as a special anniversary in your relationship.

St. Joseph's Church will be marking its own special milestone and is celebrating its Centenary year with a dedicated Mass on probably the most romantic night of the year Valentine's Day! We would like to extend an invitation to parishioners from St. Joseph's, St. Alban's and Sacred Heart to join us on Tuesday 14th February 2023 at 7pm, when couples are invited to partake in our "Renewal of Vows Mass". Forms to register your intention to attend will be placed at the back of each church next week. In the meantime, if you require any further information, please contact Christine at St. Joseph's on 01925 722105.

So, save the date and invite your family and friends along to witness as you reaffirm those commitments that you made to each other on your wedding day. Following the Mass, you and your family and friends are most welcome to continue the celebrations by joining us in St. Joseph's Parish Club.

"Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day" so for those who have lost loved ones this Mass will also recognise the commitments that you made to each other on your wedding day.

Some copies of the Archdiocese of Liverpool Directory 2023 are available to purchase at St. Joseph's Piety Shop priced £3.50.
