

Year 1/2 History Knowledge Organiser: Have people always been treated fairly?

Subject Specific Skills

To know the significant of: Wilberforce, Nelson Mandela, Helen Keller, Barnardo, Malala and Rosa Parks.

To understand that these people have made an impact on our lives.

Prior Learning

To understand the significant historical events, people and places within the locality.

(Lewis Carroll, Joseph Priestley and John Kay)

Key Knowledge:

Nelson Mandela

Mandela was a South African anti-apartheid activist who served as the first president of South Africa from 1994 to 1999.

Rosa Parks

Rosa Parks was an American activist in the civil rights movement best known for her sitting at the front of a bus

Frida Kahlo

Frida was one of the first people to be open about her sexuality. Leading the way forward for the LGBTQ+ community.

Key Vocabulary

race - each of the major groupings into which humankind is considered slavery - the state of being a slave.

LGBTQ+ - lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer disable – someone who is limited in their movements, senses, or activities.

activist- a person who campaigns to bring about political or social change.

rights - a moral or legal entitlement to have or do something.

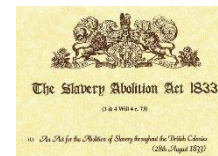

equality- the state of being equal, especially in status, rights, or opportunities.

Key Knowledge:

Wilberforce

British politician, philanthropist and leader of the movement to abolish the slave trade.

Helen Keller

Helen was an American author, disability rights advocate, political activist and lecturer.

Dr Barnardo

Dr Thomas Barnardo creator in social work founded more than 90 homes for destitute children.

Malala

Malala Yousafzai was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for her fight for the right of every child to receive an education

