

JOHN'S STORY (based on John 20: 1-10)

Very early, on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary of Magdala went to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the entrance to the tomb. She went running to tell Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. She said to them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb. We do not know where they have put him."

Peter and the other disciple went to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and got there first. He bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground but he did not go in. Simon Peter came up behind him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying on the ground as well as the cloth that had been round Jesus' head. This was not with the other linen cloths but was rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in. He saw and believed. The disciples then went back home.
